

When John Audubon Lived

Date	Event
1785	John Audubon was born in Haiti. There were 13 American states.
1803	John Audubon came to Pennsylvania and settled at Mill Grove. The United States bought the Louisiana Territory.
1807–1820	Audubon attempted several business ventures but was unsuccessful. The War of 1812 was fought, 1812-1815.
1827–1838	Audubon published his book, Birds of America , and lived in England. Samuel Morse invented the telegraph in 1835.
1839	Audubon returned to the United States. John D. Rockefeller was born.
1851	John Audubon died on January 27. Millard Fillmore was President of the United States.

For more information and further reading about John Audubon, visit the Young Patriots Series website at www.patriapress.com